

RULES FOR EXHIBIT ENTRY, JUDGING & RECLAIM AT END OF SHOW

Whilst the primary aim of the Show for Sevenhampton, Charlton Abbots and Hawling Parishes is to provide a relaxed environment and fun day for everyone to enjoy, we do need to have some rules which will help us run the Produce and Exhibition entries and competition in an orderly way. Please take a little time to study and understand the rules should you wish to enter.

All proceeds go to the Show Fund and are used for the benefit of the Community in the Parishes concerned.

Entry Form and Fees

1. All entries to be on Official Entry Forms. Entries & fees to be with the Show Secretary, Ray Oldham, at Rose Cottage, Brockhampton, by Wednesday 21st August 2019 without fail (Except Section 8: 'On the Day' Entry).
2. The entry fees are 30p for each entry in Classes 1 to 60 and 20p for Classes 65 to 74. Exhibitors may only enter once for each class; no second entry. Entry fees will be forfeited if the exhibitor enters a class but then fails to submit an entry.

All produce should be grown by exhibitors in their own gardens or allotments. Should a complaint arise in this respect, the Committee reserve the right to investigate the complaint and if the complaint is upheld, then the exhibitor will be disqualified.
9. Entries in Sections 5 & 6 will not be accepted if previously exhibited in this Show.
10. If, in the opinion of the Judges, exhibits in a particular prize category are not of sufficient merit or quality, then the prize for that category may not be awarded.

12. Any complaint must be made in writing and signed by the objector by 4pm on the day of the Produce Show and accompanied by a £5 fee. The £5 fee will be forfeited should the Committee consider that the objection is unfounded or frivolous. Any complaints received in accordance with the above will be dealt with by the Committee only.
