(the interim name for Village Dates)

Issue 9 January 2021

For Brockhampton & Sevenhampton residents. Supported by the Parish Council & The Show at Brockhampton

Dear all, Well, it's still just about January so we can still wish you all a Happy and Healthy 2021! Despite the year's slightly inauspicious start there is light at the end of the tunnel—quite a few people in our villages have now had their first jab, the vaccination programme is powering ahead and, judging by the noise the birds are making in the morning and snowdrops appearing, Spring is on its way!

Stay safe!

Yvette Ruggins

So many people in the village have asked that we pay tribute to Di Brown who passed away Thursday 21st January, only a few months after the loss of her husband, Arthur.

Di, known as "Dori" to her family, lived in Brockhampton for approx. 40 years and was very active in so many different ways, including serving as a Parish Councillor for several years as well as organising the Good Neighbourhood transport scheme enabling many essential journeys for local residents. She was also a long time member of the local Women's Institute and the Book Club.

Di and Arthur were a totally devoted couple and many of us benefitted from their hospitality. It is with much sadness and fondness that we mark the end of an era.

(Thank you to everyone who helped compile this)

Message from Gill Lanfear:

Gill would like to say a huge thank you to her family and to the many local people who sent her such lovely cards, beautiful flowers and phone calls as a result of her accident when she fell flat on her face on the road, ending up in Gloucester Hospital.

She's determined not to do it again!
